

I build whole products on my own — research, design, full-stack, infrastructure — then keep them running for the people who use them. Two are live in production. Before that, three and a half years at Mercedes-Benz.io, on the customer portal behind Mercedes Me.

hearted.music · Sole product engineer

My own product — turns a listener's Spotify Liked Songs into playlists worth keeping.

- Matches every liked song against a playlist on four signals — LLM-interpreted lyrics, audio features, genre and embedding similarity — fused into one deterministic score.
- Every liked song is enriched in the background — lyrics fetched, analysed by an LLM, embedded — on infrastructure I deploy, monitor and operate myself.

STACK: TypeScript, React 19, TanStack Start, Bun, Cloudflare Workers, Postgres + pgvector, Vercel AI SDK, Qwen3 embeddings, Stripe, Sentry

tourflow.pt · Sole product engineer

Bespoke operations software for tour operators.

- Started as a frontend contract with Vintage City Tours — rebuilt their booking site off Wix onto Astro: 4× bookings, 10× faster.
- Grew into tourflow: scheduling, shift swaps, trip logging and settlements across owners, drivers and partners, with atomic money paths and audit trails.
- Ran it as a venture, then sold them the software outright and stayed on to operate it — two operators today, both on paid support.
